No. 1-CA(23)/61—The following draft of certain amendments to the Chartered Accountants Regulations, 1949, which it is proposed to make in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (3) of Section 30 of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 (XXXVIII of 1949), is published for information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken up for consideration on or after 30th December 1961.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date specified above will be considered by the Council of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, New Delhi.

In the said Regulations:—

I. In sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 34, after the words "completion or termination of the articles", add the words "or discharge of the articled clerk".

II. In sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 34, after the words "completion or termination of articles", add the words "or discharge of the articled clerk".

III. After sub-regulation (9) of Regulation 42A, add the following:

"(10)(i) Every employer shall be entitled to discharge the audit clerk from service hereunder by two months' notice in writing to be given;

(a) within one month of the date of a letter from the Secretary of the Institute notifying the employer that the audit clerk has been classified as a 'bad failure' at the Intermediate Examination of the Institute; or

(b) within one month of the publication of the results of the third Intermediate Examination for which the audit clerk shall have been eligible to present himself and shall not have passed.

Explanation—For the purposes of sub-clause (b) above, the number of chances is to be counted from the very first examination the audit clerk would have been eligible to take according to Regulation 19A(b)(ii) and irrespective of the fact whether he had availed of the chances as and when they became due or not.

(ii) In the event of notice of discharge being given by the employer under clause (i) above, the audit clerk shall have the right during the period of such notice to appeal in writing against such discharge to the Council of the Institute. A copy of such appeal shall at the same time be sent to the employer who shall be entitled to submit in writing to the Council any representation he may wish to make on such appeal. The employer shall send a copy of his representation to the audit clerk at the same time. The employer and the audit clerk shall, if so required, appear personally before the Council or any Committee thereof and otherwise shall give such assistance as may be considered necessary by the Council for the proper determination of the appeal. The decision of the Council on the appeal, which shall be final and binding on the parties, shall be notified within two months from the date of receipt of the appeal in writing to the employer and the audit clerk and if this confirms the notice of discharge, the service of the audit clerk shall determine on the date of notification of the Council's decision or on the date of expiry of the said two months' notice, whichever is later."

IV. In the Schedule—

(1) add the following as clause 4A after the existing clause 4 in Forms 'L' and 'LL',

(2) add the following as clause 5A after the existing clause 5 in Forms 'L-1', 'LL-1', 'M' and 'MM';

(3) add the following as clause 6A after the existing clause 6 in Forms 'M-1' and 'MM-1'; viz.,

"It is hereby expressly agreed by and declared by and between the parties hereto:—

(i) that the employer shall be entitled to discharge the articted clerk from service hereunder by two months' notice in writing to be given;

(a) within one month of the date of a letter from the Secretary of the Institute notifying the employer that the articted clerk has been classified as a 'bad failure' at the Intermediate Examination of the Institute; or

(b) within one month of the publication of the results of the third Intermediate Examination for which the articted clerk shall have been eligible to present himself and shall not have passed.

Explanation—For the purposes of sub-clause (b) above, the number of chances is to be counted from the very first examination the articted clerk would have been eligible to take according to Regulation 19A(b)(ii) and irrespective of the fact whether he had availed of the chances as and when they became due or not.

(ii) that in the event of notice of discharge being given by the employer under clause (i) above, the articted clerk shall have the right during the period of such notice to appeal in writing against such discharge to the Council of the Institute. A copy of such appeal shall at the same time be sent to the employer who shall be entitled to submit in writing to the Council any representation he may wish to make on such appeal. The employer shall send a copy of his representation to the articted clerk at the same time. The employer and the articted clerk agree that each of them will, if so required, appear personally before the Council or any Committee thereof and otherwise will give such assistance as may be considered necessary by the Council for the proper determination of the appeal. The decision of the Council on the appeal, which shall be final and binding on the parties hereto shall be notified within two months from the date of receipt of the appeal in writing to the employer and the articted clerk and if this confirms the notice of discharge, the service of the articted clerk hereunder shall determine on the date of the notification of the Council's decision or on the date of expiry of the said two months' notice, whichever shall be latter."
